DETAILED ACTION

Acknowledges

1. Receipt is acknowledged of the following items from the Applicant.
Information Disclosure Statement (IDS) filed on 01/21/2004. The references cited on the PTOL 1449 form have been considered.

Specification

2. The specification has been checked to the extent necessary to determine the presence of possible minor errors. However, the applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any errors of which applicant may become aware in the specification.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claim 1-2 are rejected under 35 U. S. C. § 102 (b) as being anticipated by Shaver, U.S. patent No. 4,535,336.

Claim 1, Shaver discloses a roof rack assembly for transporting articles along a roof of a motor vehicle having an interior, said roof rack assembly comprising: a frame member 13 extending along the roof; and an electronic component 45 secured to said frame member 13 for receiving and transmitting signals to the interior portion of the motor vehicle (See fig. 1-4 and column 4, line 52-60).

Claim 2, it is inherent that Shaver discloses a radio frequency receiver module because in order to get or receive the signal by using a balun transformer.

5. Claim 1-3 are rejected under 35 U. S. C. § 102 (b) as being anticipated by Wang et al., U.S. patent No. 6,657,589.

Claim 1, Wang et al. disclose a roof rack assembly for transporting articles along a roof of a motor vehicle having an interior, said roof rack assembly comprising: a frame member (See fig. 14) extending along the roof; and an electronic component 300 secured to said frame member for receiving and transmitting signals to the interior portion of the motor vehicle (See fig. 14).

Claim 2, Wang et al. disclose a radio frequency receiver module (See fig. 7 and fig. 14-16).

Claim 3, Wang et al. disclose a radar sensor (See column 5, line 30-35).

Allowable Subject Matter

6. Claim 4 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims, since the prior art of record and considered pertinent to the applicant's disclosure does not teach or suggest the electronic component is a camera for creating a digitized signal of a space disposed adjacent to the motor vehicle.
